TOMORROW

The future is in your hands.
Don't let it go to waste.

The electronics we use every day are filled with reusable resources. By safely and securely recycling your end-of-life electronics you are helping the environment extend natural resources through responsible recovery and reuse.

Effective May 1, 2018,
residents of Saskatchewan will be able to recycle even more types of
end-of-life electronics.

After consultation with industry and other stakeholders, the Government of Saskatchewan repealed The Waste Electronics Equipment Regulations replacing them with The Electronic Equipment Stewardship Regulations (E10.22 Reg 6). Managed under the EPRA Saskatchewan program these new regulations allow for the recycling of additional end-of-life consumer electronic products.

Additional Items Accepted as of May 1, 2018
